Active And Passive Voice Exercise

Sentences are given in the passive voice. Change them into active voice by supplying suitable verbs.

1. They have been informed by us. We ..................................... them.

are informed have informed informed

2. The milk was drunk by the cat. The cat ................................. the milk.

has drunk
drank drunk

3. The missing child has been found. They Active And Passive Voice Exercise

.......................... the missing child.

found

has found

have found

4. The injured were taken to hospital. They .......................... the injured to hospital.

took

have taken

had taken

5. The winners were praised by all. All people .......................... the winners.

have praised
Active And Passive Voice Exercise

6. The hall is being decorated. They ………………………………… the hall.

   decorating

   are decorating

   have decorated

7. The man was bitten by the dog. The dog ……………………………. the man.

   bitten

   has bitten

   bit
8. A large house is owned by her. She owns is owning has owned

9. A laptop was bought by her. She bought has bought had bought

10. The match will be won by us. We will be winning Active And Passive Voice Exercise

will win

would win

11. The house is being built. They .................................................. the house.

building

are building

are being built

12. It is being investigated. We .................................................... it.

are investigating

are investigated

investigated
Active And Passive Voice Exercise

Answers

They have been informed by us. We have informed them.
The milk was drunk by the cat. The cat drank the milk.
The missing child has been found. They have found the missing child.
The injured were taken to hospital. They took the injured to hospital.
The winners were praised by all. All people praised the winners.
The hall is being decorated. They are decorating the hall.
The man was bitten by the dog. The dog bit the man.
A large house is owned by her. She owns a large house.
A laptop was bought by her. She bought a laptop.
The match will be won by us. We will win the match.
The house is being built. They are building the house.
It is being investigated. We are investigating it.