Fill in the blanks with an active or passive verb.

1. He ................................ for poor performance.
   - was fired
   - fired

2. I ............................... to wait for them.
   - made
   - was made

3. This furniture ........................... of teakwood.
   - is made
   - made
Active vs. Passive

4. She ........................................... for her vivacity.
   - remembered
   - is remembered

5. We regret to inform you that the flight ..............................
   - has cancelled
   - has been cancelled

6. The news of his demise .............................. us all.
   - shocked
   - was shocked
Active vs. Passive

7. I .................................. to their party.

- not invited
- have not invited
- was not invited

8. They never .......................... me to their parties.

- invite
- was invited
- were invited

9. I ................................. the report.

- have drafted
- have been drafted
Active vs. Passive

10. I ................................ my passport.

- have lost
- have been lost

11. The child ................................ since yesterday.

- has missed
- has been missing
- was missed

12. He ........................................... up smoking.

- has given
- has been given
Active vs. Passive

Answers

1. He was fired for poor performance.

2. I was made to wait for them.

3. This furniture is made of teakwood.

4. She is remembered for her vivacity.

5. We regret to inform you that the flight has been cancelled.

6. The news of his demise shocked us all.

7. I was not invited to their party.

8. They never invite me to their parties.

9. I have drafted the report.

10. I have lost my passport.

11. The child has been missing since yesterday.

12. He has given up smoking.