

Adjective Or Adverb

State whether the keyword is an adjective or adverb.

1. The ship is still afloat. Here afloat is an adjective

adverb

2. She is the best mother in the world. Here best is an adjective

adverb

3. She danced happily into the room. Here happily is an adjective

adverb

4. We bought the cheapest clothes in the shop. Here cheapest is an adjective

adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

5. I don't remember him very well. Here very is an
.....

adjective

adverb

6. She smiled in a friendly way. Here friendly is an
.....

adjective

adverb

7. Her singing was lovely. Here lovely is an
.....

adjective

adverb

8. Sorry I didn't post the letter – I clean forgot.
Here clean is an

adjective

adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

9. He was dead drunk when he got home. Here dead is an

- adjective
- adverb

10. The plane goes direct from Chicago to Atlanta without stopping. Here direct is an

- adverb
- adjective

11. They sometimes must be bored. Here sometimes is an

- adjective
- adverb

12. When did you last see your father? Here last is an

- adjective
- adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

Answers

1. The ship is still afloat. Here afloat is an adjective.
2. She is the best mother in the world. Here best is an adjective.
3. She danced happily into the room. Here happily is an adverb.
4. We bought the cheapest clothes in the shop. Here cheapest is an adjective.
5. I don't remember him very well. Here very is an adverb.
6. She smiled in a friendly way. Here friendly is an adjective.
7. Her singing was lovely. Here lovely is an adjective.
8. Sorry I didn't post the letter - I clean forgot. Here clean is an adverb.
9. He was dead drunk when he got home. Here dead is an adverb.
10. The plane goes direct from Chicago to Atlanta without stopping. Here direct is an adverb.
11. They sometimes must be bored. Here sometimes is an adverb.
12. When did you last see your father? Here last is an adverb.