

Adjective Or Adverb

State whether the given word is used as an adjective or adverb in the following sentences.

1. He works hard to support his family. Here hard is an adjective

adverb

2. She said that hard work is the secret of her success. Here hard is an adjective

adverb

3. I want to buy a fast car. Here fast is an adjective

adverb

4. My new car goes fast. Here fast is an adjective

adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

5. He is pretty smart. Here pretty is an

.....

adjective

adverb

6. He is old enough to make his own bed now.
Here enough is an

adjective

adverb

7. Hold tight. I am going to pull you up. Here tight is an

adjective

adverb

8. She did well in the test. Here well is an

.....

adjective

adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

9. My blouse is tight. Here tight is an

.....

adjective

adverb

10. Please don't drive so fast. Here so is an

.....

adjective

adverb

11. He speaks Russian quite well. Here quite is an

.....

adjective

adverb

12. The show was rather amusing. Here rather is an adjective

adverb

Adjective Or Adverb

Answers

1. He works hard to support his family. Here hard is an adverb.
2. She said that hard work is the secret of her success. Here hard is an adjective.
3. I want to buy a fast car. Here fast is an adjective.
4. My new car goes fast. Here fast is an adverb.
5. He is pretty smart. Here pretty is an adverb.
6. He is old enough to make his own bed now. Here enough is an adverb.
7. Hold tight. I am going to pull you up. Here tight is an adverb.
8. She did well in the test. Here well is an adverb.
9. My blouse is tight. Here tight is an adjective.
10. Please don't drive so fast. Here so is an adverb.
11. He speaks Russian quite well. Here quite is an adverb.
12. The show was rather amusing. Rather is an adverb.