Fill in the blanks with an adjective or adverb.

1. Please drive ........................................
   careful carefully

2. How is your grandmother today? Is she any .........................? good better well

3. She can speak English really ................................
   good
| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4. She</td>
<td>spoke anything.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hard</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hardly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Despite working</td>
<td>he couldn’t get the promotion.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hard</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hardly</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. The cops ran</td>
<td>and soon caught the thief.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fast</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Adjective vs. Adverb

7. We ........................................ see lions.

8. My dog can understand everything. He is ............................... human.

9. No ......................................... had she arrived than trouble started brewing.
10. The mother is .................................. waiting for her son to return.

11. All of a ......................................... he appeared from nowhere.
Adjective vs. Adverb

12. Why are you speaking so ...................................?

  loud

  loudly

  aloud

Answers

Please drive carefully.
How is your grandmother today? Is she any better?
She can speak English really well.
She hardly spoke anything.
Despite working hard, he couldn’t get the promotion.
The cops ran fast and soon caught the thief.
We rarely see lions.
My dog can understand everything. He is almost human.
No sooner had she arrived than trouble started brewing.
The mother is anxiously waiting for her son to return.
All of a sudden, he appeared from nowhere.
12. Why are you speaking so loudly?