Adjective vs. Adverb

Fill in the blanks.

1. You ......................... need some rest.
   - bad
   - badly

2. I got ......................... any sleep last night.
   - hardly
   - rarely
   - little

3. Try ......................... and you will succeed.
   - hard
   - hardly Adjective vs. Adverb

4. I know ......................... anyone here.

hardly

rarely

5. It happened all of a .........................

sudden

suddenly

6. ......................... he felt dizzy and collapsed on the floor.

Sudden

Suddenly

7. He behaved ..........................
Adjective vs. Adverb

Please select 2 correct answers

cowardly

like a coward

in a cowardly manner

8. He resembles his father ..........................

close closely

9. He became ............................... when he heard the news.

angry

angrily
Adjective vs. Adverb

10. The milk has turned ................................

sour sourly

11. I feel .................................

feverish feverishly

12. He is getting ................................. day and day.

good better Adjective vs. Adverb

Answers

You badly need some rest.
I got hardly any sleep last night.
Try hard and you will succeed.
I know hardly anyone here.
It happened all of a sudden.
Suddenly he felt dizzy and collapsed on the floor.
He behaved in a cowardly manner / like a coward.
He resembles his father closely.
He became angry when he heard the news.
The milk has turned sour.
I feel feverish.
He is getting better day and day.