

Adjective vs. Adverb Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an adjective or adverb.

1. She spoke

polite

politely

2. I felt

sad

sadly

Either could be used here

3. She can speak English fluent

fluently

Adjective vs. Adverb Exercise

Either could be used here

4. He spoke anything.

hard

hardly

Either could be used here

5. A fast train goes

fast

fastly

Either could be used here

6. The soup tasted

Adjective vs. Adverb Exercise

delicious

deliciously

Either could be used here

7. He sounded optimistic

optimistically

Either could be used here

8. She looked

happy

happily

Either could be used here

Adjective vs. Adverb Exercise

9. She is to hear from her parents.

eager

eagerly

Either could be used here

10. I am waiting to hear from them.

eager

eagerly

11. That looks difficult

difficultly

Adjective vs. Adverb Exercise

12. We waited there

hopeful

hopefully

Either could be used here

Answers

She spoke politely.

I felt sad.

She can speak English fluently.

She spoke hardly anything.

A fast train goes fast.

The soup tasted delicious.

He sounded optimistic.

She looked happy.

She is eager to hear from her parents.

I am eagerly waiting to hear from them.

That looks difficult.

We waited there hopefully.