Fill in the blanks.

1. I have got a ............................... job.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>boring</th>
<th>bored</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

2. I was ............................... because the speaker went on speaking for hours on end.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>boring</th>
<th>bored</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

3. It was a ............................... speech.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>boring</th>
<th>bored</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Adjectives Ending In -Ing Or -Ed

4. I was ................................... because the walk was ....................................

- tired, tired
- tired, tiring
- tiring, tired

5. People who always talk about the same thing are ....................................

- boring
- bored

6. They are no longer ................................................ in this project.

- interested
- interesting
Adjectives Ending In -Ing Or -Ed

7. His loneliness made him ................................

- depressed
- depressing

8. Loneliness can be ....................................

- depressing
- depressed

9. I found someone .................................. at the party.

- interesting
- interested

10. Are you ........................................... in learning to
11. The news of his sudden demise was
..............................

shocking

12. I was ................................... when I heard the news of his demise.

shocked

shocking
Adjectives Ending In -Ing Or -Ed

Answers

I have got a boring job.
I was bored because the speaker went on speaking for hours on end.
It was a boring speech.
I was tired because the walk was tiring.
People who always talk about the same thing are boring.
They are no longer interested in this project.
His loneliness made him depressed.
Loneliness can be depressing.
I found someone interesting at the party.
Are you interested in learning to cook?
The news of his sudden demise was shocking.
I was shocked when I heard the news of his demise.