

Adjectives Exercise

An adjective is a word used to describe a person or thing. Adjectives usually go before the nouns modified by them. In the following sentences identify the adjectives.

1. That was an incredible sight.

that

incredible

sight

2. It was a stupid thing to do.

was

stupid

thing

do

3. She is cleverer than I thought.

Adjectives Exercise

is

cleverer

than

thought

4. Do you know any shop that sells coconuts?

know

any

sells

5. She seems to be very intelligent.

seems

very

Adjectives Exercise

intelligent

6. He was a mischievous boy who always landed himself in trouble.

mischievous

boy

trouble

7. She looked gorgeous in that gown.

looked

gown

gorgeous

8. This is the eighth chocolate you have eaten

Adjectives Exercise

today.

eighth

eaten

today

9. Thank you for your quick reply.

thank

for

quick

10. The sun is the brightest object in the sky.

sun

brightest

Adjectives Exercise

in

11. It was an unforgettable experience.

it

experience

unforgettable

12. The job was more difficult than I thought.

job

difficult

than

Adjectives Exercise

Answers

That was an incredible sight. (incredible)

It was a stupid thing to do. (stupid)

She is cleverer than I thought. (cleverer)

Do you know any shop that sells coconuts? (any)

She seems to be very intelligent. (intelligent)

He was a mischievous boy who always landed himself in trouble. (mischievous)

She looked gorgeous in that gown. (gorgeous)

This is the eighth chocolate you have eaten today. (eighth)

Thank you for your quick reply. (quick)

The sun is the brightest object in the sky. (brightest)

It was an unforgettable experience. (unforgettable)

The job was more difficult than I thought. (difficult)