Fill in the blanks with an adverb.

1. Snake bites can be .................................
   - deadly
   - dead
   - fatally

2. Tension ran .......................... ..............
   - high
   - highly

3. They treat their servants
   .................................
   - bad
   - badly
Adverbs Exercise

4. I am ........................................... sure that he is involved in this.

dead

deadly

5. It was a ............................... amusing program.

high

highly

6. The stone hit him ................................. on the nose.

right

rightly
7. I .......................................... assumed that she wouldn’t come.

right

rightly

8. They left ................................ after lunch.

right

rightly

9. 'Can I borrow your car?'

'......................................................'

Sure

Surely
Adverbs Exercise

10. The students performed really
   ........................................

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>good</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>well</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

11. He is always .......................... for work.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>late</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>lately</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

12. I have watched a lot of interesting movies
   ..............................

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>late</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>lately</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Adverbs Exercise

Answers

1. Snake bites can be deadly.
2. Tension ran high.
3. They treat their servants badly.
4. I am dead sure that he is involved in this.
5. It was a highly amusing program.
6. The stone hit him right on the nose.
7. I rightly assumed that she wouldn’t come.
8. They left right after lunch.
9. ‘Can I borrow your car?’ ‘Sure.’
10. The students performed really well.
11. He is always late for work.
12. I have watched a lot of interesting movies lately.