

Adverbs worksheet

Complete the following sentences by supplying the missing adverbs. Choose your answers from the options given below.

[Extremely, clearly, bitterly, greatly, ever, very, sweet, suspiciously, often, eloquently, also, seldom, too, nearly, rather, barely, pleasantly]

1. It is hot today.
2. The king was pleased to see his favorite courtier again.
3. They looked at me
4. I met him at the club.
5. The professor spoke at the convocation.
6. This offer is good to be true.
7. I watch films.
8. It was cold in the hills.
9. He was surprised to hear the news.
10. He was so tired that he could stand.
11. The box is heavy; I cannot lift it.

Answers

1. It is extremely hot today.

Adverbs worksheet

2. The king was greatly pleased to see his favorite courtier again.
3. They looked at me suspiciously.
4. I met him often at the club.
5. The professor spoke eloquently at the convocation.
6. This offer is too good to be true.
7. I rarely watch films.
8. It was rather cold in the hills.
9. He was pleasantly surprised to hear the news.
10. He was so tired that he could barely stand.
11. The box is too heavy; I cannot lift it.