Because vs. Because Of

Fill in the blanks with because or because of.

1. They cancelled the match ................................ bad weather.
   - because
   - because of

2. His success is ........................................... his mother.
   - because
   - because of

3. They rushed him to hospital ........................... he had trouble breathing.
   - because
   - because of
4. It is all ......................... your stupidity that we got into trouble.

because

because of

5. She cannot walk ......................... she has broken her leg.

because

because of

6. She found the exam difficult ......................... she hadn't learned her lessons thoroughly.

because

because of
Because vs. Because Of

7. He can't walk .................................................. his disability.

because

because of

8. She cannot afford three meals a day .................................. she is very poor.

because

because of

9. .................................................. his poor financial situation, he could not send his children to university.

Because

Because of

© www.englishgrammar.org
Because vs. Because Of

10. I missed the flight ......................... I overslept.

because

because of

11. I had a tough time working in China ...................... I could not understand their language.

because

because of

12. ................................... his strong accent, I could not understand him.

Because of

Because Because vs. Because Of

Answers

1. They cancelled the match because of bad weather.
2. His success is because of his mother.
3. They rushed him to hospital because he had trouble breathing.
4. It is all because of your stupidity that we got into trouble.
5. She cannot walk because she has broken her leg.
6. She found the exam difficult because she hadn’t learned her lessons thoroughly.
7. He can’t walk because of his disability.
8. She cannot afford three meals a day because she is very poor.
9. Because of his poor financial situation, he could not send his children to university.
10. I missed the flight because I overslept.
11. I had a tough time working in China because I could not understand their language.
12. Because of his strong accent, I could not understand him.