Change The Voice Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate passive verb form.

1. They nominated him for the post. / He

…………………………. for the post.

2. I will not permit this. / This

…………………………. by me.

3. She grows fruits and vegetables in her garden. / Fruits and vegetables

…………………………. in her garden.

are grown

are growing

have grown

4. I have invited even my acquaintances. / Even my acquaintances ......................... by me.

have invited

have been invited

had been invited

5. They threw a grand party to celebrate the occasion. / A grand party ......................... to celebrate the occasion.

was thrown
6. I appreciate his work. / His work
........................................ by me.

is appreciated
has been appreciated
was appreciated

7. I admire your belief that you are always right. / Your belief that you are always right
........................................ by me.

is admired
is being admired
has been admired
8. She donated all her money to charities. / All her money ………………… to charities.

- was donated
- had been donated
- is donated

9. We must help her. / She ……………………… by us.

- must be helped
- must have helped
- should be helped

10. I still regret that decision. / That decision …………………... by me.

- is still regretted

© www.englishgrammar.org
11. She doesn’t support this. / This ................................ by her.

- does not be supported
- is not supported
- has not supported

12. They fired him for missing his deadlines. / He ................................. for missing his deadlines.

- has fired
- was fired
- was being fired
Change The Voice Exercise

Answers

They nominated him for the post. / He was nominated for the post.
I will not permit this. / This will not be permitted by me.
She grows fruits and vegetables in her garden. / Fruits and vegetables are grown in her garden.
I have invited even my acquaintances. / Even my acquaintances have been invited by me.
They threw a grand party to celebrate the occasion. / A grand party was thrown to celebrate the occasion.
I appreciate his work. / His work is appreciated by me.
I admire your belief that you are always right. / Your belief that you are always right is admired by me.
She donated all her money to charities. / All her money was donated to charities.
We must help her. / She must be helped by us.
I still regret that decision. / That decision is still regretted by me.
She doesn’t support this. / This is not supported by her.
They fired him for missing his deadlines. / He was fired for missing his deadlines.