

Collective nouns exercise

The verb has to agree with the subject in number and person. Complete the following sentences using a verb form that agrees with the subject.

1. Our audience always been the affluent urban elite.

has
have

2. The audience at the open-air stadium not as large as had been expected.

was
were

3. The audience enthralled by her performance.

was
were

4. Audiences throughout the world been captivated by Chaplin's films.

has
have

Collective nouns exercise

5. The public stringent laws to deal with terrorists.

want
wants

6. The public not satisfied with the relief measures taken during the floods.

was
were

7. The team practising at the stadium.

was
were

8. The team for Australia tomorrow.

is leaving
are leaving

Collective nouns exercise

9. A family with four children next door.

live
lives

10. My family going to be there.

is
are

Answers

1. Our audience has always been the affluent urban elite.
2. The audience at the open-air stadium was not as large as had been expected.
3. The audience was enthralled by her performance.
4. Audiences throughout the world have been captivated by Chaplin's films.
5. The public wants stringent laws to deal with terrorists.
6. The public was not satisfied with the relief measures taken during the floods.
7. The team was practising at the stadium.
8. The team is leaving for Australia tomorrow.

Collective nouns exercise

9. A family with four children lives next door.

10. My family is going to be there.