We use several different structures to make comparisons. Positive adjectives are used in the structure as...as. Before ‘than’, we use a comparative adjective.

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate comparative structure.

1. The baby doesn’t look much ..................... you.
   as
   like

2. Her eyes are not at all the same color ..................... yours.
   as
   like

3. I earn as much money ..................... you.
   as
   like

4. It was ..................... than I thought.
   more expensive
   expensive
   most expensive
5. The car is running ................. since it had a service.

faster
more fast

6. You are ................. annoying person in the whole neighborhood.

most
the most more

7. She is ..................... than her sister.

less pretty
less prettier

8. I have got ..................... than I used to have.

less energy
least energy
the less energy
Comparative structures

9. I want to spend ........................ working.

the less possible time
the least possible time
the lesser possible time

Answers

1. The baby doesn’t look much like you.

2. Her eyes are not at all the same color as yours.

3. I earn as much money as you.

4. It was more expensive than I thought.

5. The car is running faster since it had a service.

6. You are the most annoying person in the whole neighborhood.

7. She is less pretty than her sister.

8. I have got less energy than I used to have.

9. I want to spend the least possible time working.