Conditional Clauses Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate conditional verb form.

1. If I were you, I ...............................

won't go

wouldn't go

wouldn't have gone

2. She said that she would be happy if she ............................... more money.

has had had had

3. If you leave now, you ............................... the bus.

Conditional Clauses Exercise

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>will catch</th>
<th>would catch</th>
<th>could catch</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

4. My mother told me that if I had passed the test, she ................................... me a bike.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>will buy</th>
<th>would buy</th>
<th>would have bought</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

5. If I were rich, I ................................... more time on traveling.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>will spend</th>
<th>would spend</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Conditional Clauses Exercise

6. If she had come on time, he would have spent mad.

7. If you had apologized, they would not have taken any further actions against you.
Conditional Clauses Exercise

8. If you ................................ early, you could meet her.

- arrive
- arrived
- had arrived

9. If I ................................. the money, I would have admitted it.

- take
- took
- had taken

10. If you ................................. more politely, she would lend you her car.

- asked
11. If you love me, I ........................................... you.

- will love
- would love
- would have loved

12. If she ........................................... Spanish at university, she could work as a translator.

- learn
- learned
- had learned
Conditional Clauses Exercise

Answers

If I were you, I wouldn’t go.
She said that she would be happy if she had more money.
If you leave now, you will catch the bus.
My mother told me that if I had passed the test, she would have bought me a bike.
If I were rich, I would spend more time on traveling.
If she had come on time, he wouldn’t have gone mad.
If you had apologized, they wouldn’t have taken any further actions against you.
If you arrived early, you could meet her.
If I had taken the money, I would have admitted it.
If you asked more politely, she would lend you her car.
If you love me, I will love you.
If she learned Spanish at university, she could work as a translator.