Conditional Clauses Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. If you had invited her, she ................................ with us.
   - will come
   - would come
   - would have come

2. If I had enough money, I .......................... to university.
   - can go
   - could go
   - could have gone

3. If I knew her number, I .............................. it to you.
Conditional Clauses Exercise

4. If I ......................... to that party, I would be bored.

went

go

had gone

5. If she ......................... French, she could work as a translator.

know

knew Conditional Clauses Exercise

6. If I .......................... money, I will sell my car.

need
needed
had needed

7. If you ........................... less than you earn, you will not get into debt.

spend
spent had spent

8. If I .......................... more money, I could lead a Conditional Clauses Exercise

better life.

earn earned had earned

9. If she ....................... about your future plans, what would you say?

ask asked
had asked

10. If he ....................... his father's estate, he would have become rich.

inherits
Conditional Clauses Exercise

inherited

had inherited

11. If you ......................... your lunch, you wouldn't be hungry now.

eat

ate

had eaten

12. If she had married me, both of us ......................... happy.

will be

would be

would have been Conditional Clauses Exercise

Answers

If you had invited her, she would have come with us.
If I had enough money, I could go to university.
If I knew her number, I would give it to you.
If I went to that party, I would be bored.
If she knew French, she could work as a translator.
If I need money, I will sell my car.
If you spend less than you earn, you will not get into debt.
If I earned more money, I could lead a better life.
If she asked about your future plans, what would you say?
If he had inherited his father’s estate, he would have become rich.
If you ate your lunch, you wouldn’t be hungry now.
If she had married me, both of us would have been happy.