

Confusing Words Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The minister spoke of the soul's
..... life.

eternal ethereal

2. Her beauty could not be captured by the greatest painter.

eternal
ethereal

3. Her would not allow her to betray a friend.

ethics ethnics

4. Each country has its own ..... costumes.

ethic ethnic

Confusing Words Exercise

5. The politician's answers infuriated the reporters.

- evasive
- allusive
- invasive

6. The procedure was only minimally

- evasive
- invasive
- elusive

7. An spends much time alone.

- introvert
- introspective
- intravert

8. His sense of humor helped him through hard times.

- invisible
- invincible

Confusing Words Exercise

invincible

9. romantics are always falling in love.

incorrigible

die-hard inveterate

All of the above

11. In an position, a 9 looks like a 6.

converted inverted perverted

12. The sinner the Lord's forgiveness.

invoked

evoked

Confusing Words Exercise

Answers

The minister spoke of the soul's eternal life.

Her ethereal beauty could not be captured by the greatest painter.

Her ethics would not allow her to betray a friend.

Each country has its own ethnic costumes.

The politician's evasive answers infuriated the reporters.

The procedure was only minimally invasive.

An introvert spends much time alone.

His invincible sense of humor helped him through hard times.

Inveterate/incorrigible / diehard romantics are always falling in love.

In an inverted position, a 9 looks like a 6.

The sinner invoked the Lord's forgiveness.