

Confusing Words Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. I him 1000 dollars.

lent

lended

borrowed

2. The cute smile her face a childlike charm.

lended

lent

borrowed

3. We our full support to the project.

Confusing Words Exercise

borrowed

lent

4. Can you me a few hundred dollars?

lend

lent

borrow

5. Can I a hundred dollars from you until payday?

lent

borrow

lend

Confusing Words Exercise

6. You can my car but you have to bring it back before 10 pm.

borrow

lend

lent

7. My sister always me when we play badminton.

wins

beats

loses

8. I always when we play chess.

Please select 2 correct answers

Confusing Words Exercise

beat

win

lose

9. The doctor me to eat more fruits and vegetables.

advised

advised

10. my cat was such a harrowing experience for me.

Losing

Loosing

Missing

Confusing Words Exercise

11. He my vacuum cleaner and broke it.

borrowed

lent

12. I terribly my lost cat.

miss

lose

Either could be used here

Answers

I lent him 1000 dollars.

The cute smile lent her face a childlike charm.

We lent our full support to the project.

Can you lend me a few hundred dollars?

Can I borrow a hundred dollars from you until payday?

You can borrow my car but you have to bring it back before 10 pm.

Confusing Words Exercise

My sister always beats me when we play badminton.

I always win/lose when we play chess.

The doctor advised me to eat more fruits and vegetables.

Losing my cat was such a harrowing experience for me.

He borrowed my vacuum cleaner and broke it.

I terribly miss my lost cat.