

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. standing at the gate, I saw something strange.

While

As

When

2. I know a shop they repair old watches.

which

there

where

3. This is the park we used to meet.

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

where there

which

4. The man mother was seriously ill urged the doctors to save her life.

whose who's whom

5. it was an old town, we couldn't find any good accommodation.

As

So

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

For

6. She is old to walk without support.

so

too

very

7. her good performance, she was denied promotion.

In spite of

Though

However

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

8. she is very old, she is still very much on her own.

As

Though

Even if

9. did she get the message, than she started for home.

No sooner

As soon as

10. he was the most deserving candidate, he had no difficulty getting the job.

As

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

Though

For

11. You can stay with me
..... you take care of your expenses.

as long as provided that so long as

All of the above

12. He asked a question no one could answer.

that what

Conjunctions And Relative Pronouns

Exercise

who

Answers

While standing at the gate, I saw something strange.

I know a shop where they sell old watches.

This is the park where we used to meet.

The man whose mother was seriously ill urged the doctors to save her life.

As it was an old town, we couldn't find any good accommodation.

She is too old to walk without support.

In spite of her good performance, she was denied promotion.

Though she is very old, she is still very much on her own.

No sooner did she get the message, than she started for home.

As he was the most deserving candidate, he had no difficulty getting the job.

You can stay with me as long as you take care of your expenses.

He asked a question that no one could answer.