

Conjunctions exercise

Conjunctions are words used to connect clauses. They not only connect clauses but also express the relationship between them. This exercise tests your knowledge of conjunctions.

Fill in the blanks with suitable conjunctions.

1. Though she studied well she failed.

but
and yet

2. She is as beautiful her mother.

as
so than

3. She is not brilliant as her sister.

as
so
Either could be used here

4. He was busy he was on tour.

Conjunctions exercise

when why
then

5. Shakespeare was a poet but also a dramatist.

not only
both not just

6. He fell asleep he was reading the book.

since while

7. I would like to go I am too busy.

but
or
that

8. You can walk or go by bus.

Conjunctions exercise

either neither nor

9. He tried his best failed.

and
so
but

10. She is neither Sita Radha.

or nor

Answers

1. Though she studied well yet she failed.
2. She is as beautiful as her mother.
3. She is not as brilliant as her sister.
4. He was busy when he was on tour.
5. Shakespeare was not only a poet but also a dramatist.

Conjunctions exercise

6. He fell asleep while he was reading the book.
7. I would like to go but I am too busy.
8. You can either walk or go by bus.
9. He tried his best but failed.
10. She is either Sita or Radha. / She is neither Sita nor Radha.