

Conjunctions vs. Prepositions

Conjunction or preposition

1. He works a journalist.

like

as

2. She is my sister to me.

like

as

3. Just his friends, he is a non-smoker.

like

as

Conjunctions vs. Prepositions

4. her mother, it is my responsibility to take care of her.

As

Like

5. you know, we cannot promote nepotism.

As

Like

6. She is pretty as a doll.

as

like

Conjunctions vs. Prepositions

7. Don't cry a baby.

as

like

8. That cloud looks an elephant.

like

as

9. Animals cows, elephants and goats are herbivores.

like

as

Conjunctions vs. Prepositions

10. They arrived just I was about to leave.

as

like

11. he was not there, I couldn't talk to him.

As

Like

12. Tired he was, he went on working.

as

like

Conjunctions vs. Prepositions

Answers

He works as a journalist.

She is like my sister to me.

Just like his friends, he is a non-smoker.

As her mother, it is my responsibility to take care of her.

As you know, we cannot promote nepotism.

She is as pretty as a doll.

Don't cry like a baby.

That cloud looks like an elephant.

Animals like cows, elephants and goats are herbivores.

They arrived just as I was about to leave.

As he was not there, I couldn't talk to him.

Tired as he was, he went on working.