

Conjunctions worksheet

Complete the following sentences using appropriate conjunctions.

(after, because, and, but, if, or, that, though, until, what, when, where, whether, while)

1. The farmer had to buy another bull, the farm work was piling up.
2. Many people had gathered there no one could do anything.
3. The five girls did even the village headman could not would not do.
4. you want your money back, you will have to return the bit of wisdom.
5. the last leaf falls, I must go too.
6. Kabir's compositions are short and simple, they convey profound meaning and wisdom.
7. We were wondering we could have a few of your students visiting us every month.
8. Let us keep that title in reserve someone comes up with a better one.
9. Everything happened exactly Prospero had planned.

Answers

1. The farmer had to buy another bull, because the farm work was piling up.
2. Many people had gathered there but no one could do anything.
3. The five girls did what even the village headman could not or would not do.
4. If you want your money back, you will have to return the bit of wisdom.
5. When the last leaf falls, I must go too.
6. Though Kabir's compositions are short and simple, they convey profound meaning and wisdom.
7. We were wondering if we could have a few of your students visiting us every month.
8. Let us keep that title in reserve until someone comes up with a better one.
9. Everything happened exactly as Prospero had planned.