

Connecting Words Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate connecting word.

1. She is both pretty intelligent.

and

as well as also

2. his illness, he attends office regularly.

In spite of

Despite of Inspite of

3. She is not perfect;, I can't help liking her.

Connecting Words Exercise

though

however despite

4. You cannot go you have finished the task.

Please select 2 correct answers

until

un till

till

5. you do not take the prescribed tablets, you won't get better.

If

Connecting Words Exercise

Unless

In case

6. Something must have happened to them
..... they haven't returned yet.

for

as

though

7. he lacks formal education,
he is one of the most intelligent persons I know.

If

As

Though

Connecting Words Exercise

8. it was a good offer, I accepted it.

Though

As

if

9. she had seen you, you would have been in trouble.

If

As

Unless

10. She became angry I said a word.

after

Connecting Words Exercise

before

when

11. I haven't seen him he moved to the US.

since

for

from

12. She smiled she knew everything.

Please select 2 correct answers

if

as if

Connecting Words Exercise

as though

Answers

She is both pretty and intelligent.

In spite of his illness, he attends office regularly.

She is not perfect; however, I can't help liking her.

You cannot go until you have finished the task.

If you do not take the prescribed tablets, you won't get better.

Something must have happened to them for they haven't returned yet.

Though he lacks formal education, he is one of the most intelligent persons I know.

As it was a good offer, I accepted it.

If she had seen you, you would have been in trouble.

She became angry before I said a word.

I haven't seen him since he moved to the US.

She smiled as if / as though she knew everything.