

Contracted forms exercise

The expression she's can be the contracted form of she is or she has.

Read the following sentences and state what form of the verb is used in them.

1. She's never been to the US.

She's = she has

She's = she is

2. There's someone at the door.

There's = there is

There's =there has

3. The dog is happy. It's had its breakfast.

It's = it is

It's = it has

4. He's not interested in the offer.

He's = he is

He's = he has

Contracted forms exercise

5. There's a problem.

There's = there is

There's = there has

6. She's from Mexico.

She's = she is

She's = she has

7. He's gone to the market.

He's = he has

He's = he is

8. It's a sad state of affairs.

It's = it is

It's = it has

9. There's been an explosion near the temple.

There's = there is

There's = there has

Contracted forms exercise

10. She's returned from her business tour.

She's = she has

She's = she is

Answers

1. She's never been to the US. (= She has never
2. There's someone at the door. (= There is someone...)
3. The dog is happy. It's had its breakfast. (= It has had..)
4. He's not interested in the offer. (= He is not...)
5. There's a problem. (= There is...)
6. She's from Mexico. (= She is from...)
7. He's gone to the market. (= He has gone...)
8. It's a sad state of affairs. (= It is a sad...)
9. There's been an explosion near the temple. (= There has been...)
10. She's returned from her business tour. (= She has returned...)