

Degrees of comparison

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate adjective. Choose your answers from the options given in the brackets.

1. Delhi is than Mumbai.

- hot
- hotter
- hottest

2. youngest brother serves in the army.

- My
- Me
- Mine

3. We had most interesting experience during the picnic.

- a
- the
- Either could be used here

4. Mr. Ramesh is most popular lecturer in our college.

Degrees of comparison

a
the

5. I am satisfied only with best.

a
the

6. Kodaikanal is one of the hill stations in South India.

lovely lovelier loveliest

7. The of the two brothers is getting married next month.

younger youngest

8. This is most useful book on the subject.

a

Degrees of comparison

the

9. I have not seen better film than this.

a
the

10. Only the member can be elected the President.

old older oldest

11. This is worst accident in recent times.

the
a

12. Charles seemed to be covered with hair.

Most of

Degrees of comparison

The most of

Answers

1. Delhi is hotter than Mumbai.
2. My youngest brother serves in the army.
3. We had a most interesting experience during the picnic.
4. Mr. Ramesh is the most popular lecturer in our college.
5. I am satisfied only with the best.
6. Kodaikanal is one of the loveliest hill stations in South India.
7. The younger of the two brothers is getting married next month.
8. This is the most useful book on the subject.
9. I have not seen a better film than this.
10. Only the oldest member can be elected the President.
11. This is the worst accident in recent times.
12. Most of Charles seemed to be covered with hair.