

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

Fill in the blanks with appropriate demonstrative, indefinite, distributive or reciprocal pronouns.

1. must not boast of one's success.

We
One
They

2. Both paintings are good but this is better than that this what

3. loves beautiful things.

Everybody
Somebody
Anybody

4. was there to rescue the child from drowning.

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

Nobody
Anybody
No body

5. of them rose from their seats shouting slogans.

All
Every Any

6. could answer my questions.

Nobody
Anybody
No body

7. Did write with my pen when I was away?

anybody
somebody nobody

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

8. My views are in accordance with of yours.

- that
- those
- these

9. The two brothers love

- each other
- each others
- one another

10. of the accusations is true.

- Either
- Neither

11. All the five members of the family quarreled with

- each other
- one another

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

12. They praised to gain cheap popularity.

- they
- each other
- each others

Answers

1. One must not boast of one's success.
2. Both paintings are good but this is better than that.
3. Everybody loves beautiful things.
4. Nobody was there to rescue the child from drowning.
5. All of them rose from their seats shouting slogans.
6. Nobody could answer my questions.
7. Did anybody write with my pen when I was away?
8. My views are in accordance with those of yours.
9. The two brothers love each other.
10. Neither of the accusations is true.

Demonstrative and indefinite pronouns exercise

11. All the five members of the family quarreled with one another.

12. They praised each other to gain cheap popularity.