

Determiners Exercise

Determiners are words like my, any, this, those, much, most, some and both. This grammar exercise tests your ability to use determiners correctly.

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate determiner.

1. Has she got friends?

any any of

Either could be used here

2. children love stories.

Most

Most of

Either could be used here

3. the shops are closed on Sundays.

Most

Most of

Either could be used here

4. philosophy is concerned with life after death.

Determiners Exercise

Much

Much of

Either could be used here

5. these blouses is loose for me.

Every of Every

Every one of

6. my friends smoke or drink.

No

No of

None of

7. his ideas are too complicated for me to understand.

All

All of

Either could be used here

8. I have invited them to my party.

Determiners Exercise

all
all of
Either could be used here

9. these keys opens the door.

Neither
Neither of
Either could be used here

10. my parents like traveling.

Both
Both of
Either could be used here

11. Janet earns money in my family.

most
the most the most of

12. You may take these shirts.

either

Determiners Exercise

either of

Either could be used here

Answers

1. Has she got any friends?
2. Most children love stories.
3. Most of the shops are closed on Sundays.
4. Much of philosophy is concerned with life after death.
5. Every one of these blouses is loose for me.
6. None of my friends smoke or drink.
7. All / all of his ideas are too complicated for me to understand.
8. I have invited all of them to my party.
9. Neither of these keys opens the door.
10. Both /both of my parents like traveling.
11. Janet earns the most money in my family.
12. You may take either of these shirts.