

Determiners worksheet

Determiners are words like the, a, my, this, some, either, every, enough, several. They come at the beginning of noun phrases, but they are not adjectives. There are mainly two types of determiners:

Group A determiners

Group B determiners

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate determiner.

1. Delhi was without electricity last night.

Most

Most of

Either could be used here

2. my friends wished me on my birthday.

None of

No of

No

3. her income come from the estate.

Half

Half of Determiners worksheet

Either could be used here

4. There are trees on side of the path.

each

each of

Either could be used here

5. She had a child holding on to hand.

each

each of

Either could be used here

6. people agree with me.

Most

Most of

Either could be used here

7. Have you got sugar?

any

Determiners worksheet

any of

Either could be used here

8. Can I ask questions?

few

a few

the few

9. key opens the door.

Neither

Neither of Either could be used here

Answers

1. Most of Delhi was without electricity last night.
2. None of my friends wished me on my birthday.
3. Half / half of her income come from the estate.
4. There are trees on each side of the path.

Determiners worksheet

5. She had a child holding on to each hand.

6. Most people agree with me.

7. Have you got any sugar?

8. Can I ask a few questions?

9. Neither key opens the door.