

Easily Confused Words Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The cold weather my health.

affected effected

2. The cold weather had an adverse on my health.

affect effect

3. Travel can be an excellent to one's education.

complement compliment

4. The hostess received glowing on the dinner.

complements compliments

Easily Confused Words Exercise

5. The extreme cold..... the mountain climbers.

- uncomforted
- miscomforted
- discomforted

6. I made inquiries about his credit rating.

- discreet
- discrete

7. Use your own in choosing a restaurant.

- discretion
- discretion
- discreation

8. Charles Dickens was an writer.

- eminent
- imminent

Easily Confused Words Exercise

9. A storm is

- eminent
- imminent

10. Not even the experts could figure out the magician's escape.

- ingenious
- ingenuous

11. Children are more than adults.

- ingenious
- ingenuous

12. We credit cards here.

- accept
- agree
- expect

Easily Confused Words Exercise

Answers

1. The cold weather affected my health.
2. The cold weather had an adverse effect on my health.
3. Travel can be an excellent complement to one's education.
4. The hostess received glowing compliments on the dinner.
5. The extreme cold discomforted the mountain climbers.
6. I made discreet inquiries about his credit rating.
7. Use your own discretion in choosing a restaurant.
8. Charles Dickens was an eminent writer.
9. A storm is imminent.
10. Not even the experts could figure out the magician's ingenious escape.
11. Children are more ingenuous than adults.
12. We accept credit cards here.