

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. In the the author states his intentions in writing the book.

- foreword
- foreward
- forward

2. The museum curator discovered that the Persian vase was a

- forge
- forage
- forgery

3. It looks like he has our appointment.

- forgot
- forgotten
- Either could be used here

4. She is so that she has to make a note of everything.

English Vocabulary Exercise

forgetful

forgettable

Either could be used here

5. Because of other expenses, I had to ..... that dress.

forgo

forage

forge

6. When I saw that watchdog,
I went no further.

forbidden

forbidding

Either could be used here

7. Have you ever seen anyone so fond of
.....?

deserts

desserts

English Vocabulary Exercise

8. The child about in the water until the lifeguard got to him.

- foundered
- floundered

9. We know she is rich, so she doesn't have to it.

- float
- flaunt
- flout

10. That was a abuse of his authority.

- flagrant
- fragrant
- flagrent

11. The visiting head of state was given a welcome.

- fitting
- fitful

English Vocabulary Exercise

12. The children get when we take them to church.

fidgety

fidelity

fidget

Answers

1. In the foreword the author states his intentions in writing the book.
2. The museum curator discovered that the Persian vase was a forgery.
3. It looks like he has forgotten / forgot our appointment.
4. She is so forgetful that she has to make a note of everything.
5. Because of other expenses, I had to forgo that dress.
6. When I saw that forbidding watchdog, I went no further.
7. Have you ever seen anyone so fond of desserts?
8. The child floundered about in the water until the lifeguard got to him.
9. We know she is rich, so she doesn't have to flaunt it.
10. That was a flagrant abuse of his authority.
11. The visiting head of state was given a fitting welcome.

English Vocabulary Exercise

12. The children get fidgety when we take them to church.