

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The invaders the countryside.

ravished

ravaged

2. The opera the audience.

ravaged

ransacked

ravished

3. You look simply ravishing

ravaging

English Vocabulary Exercise

4. The materials arrived at the factory by the trainload.

raw

row

5. They are going to this building to make way for the new highway.

race

raze

rage

6. She of cheap perfume.

reeks

wreaks

English Vocabulary Exercise

reaks

7. Robin Hood is said to have lived during the of King Richard Lionheart and King John.

rains

reigns

reins

8. Hold on to the tightly.

reins

reigns

rains

English Vocabulary Exercise

9. You must learn to your tongue.

rein

reign

rain

10. One of my is coming for dinner.

relatives

relations

Either could be used here

11. We had a small but quickly made up.

raw

English Vocabulary Exercise

row

12. They sat in the front

raw

row

Answers

The invaders ravaged the countryside.

The opera ravished the audience.

You look simply ravishing.

The raw materials arrived at the factory by the trainload.

They are going to raze this building to make way for the new highway.

She reeks of cheap perfume.

Robin Hood is said to have lived during the reigns of King Richard Lionheart and King John.

Hold on to the reins tightly.

You must learn to rein your tongue.

One of my relations / relatives is coming for dinner.

We had a small row but quickly made up.

They sat in the front row.