Fill in the blanks.

1. The invaders ........................................... the countryside.
   - ravished
   - ravaged

2. The opera ............................................ the audience.
   - ravaged
   - ransacked
   - ravished

3. You look simply ............................................
   - ravishing
   - ravaging
4. The ............................ materials arrived at the factory by the trainload.

- raw
- row

5. They are going to ............................ this building to make way for the new highway.

- race
- raze
- rage

6. She ................................. of cheap perfume.

- reeks
- wreaks
7. Robin Hood is said to have lived during the ........................................ of King Richard Lionheart and King John.

8. Hold on to the ................................... tightly.
9. You must learn to __________________ your tongue.

- rein
- reign
- rain

10. One of my __________________ is coming for dinner.

- relatives
- relations

Either could be used here

11. We had a small __________________ but quickly made up.

- raw
12. They sat in the front ..................................

Answers

The invaders ravaged the countryside.
The opera ravished the audience.
You look simply ravishing.
The raw materials arrived at the factory by the trainload.
They are going to raze this building to make way for the new highway.
She reeks of cheap perfume.
Robin Hood is said to have lived during the reigns of King Richard Lionheart and King John.
Hold on to the reins tightly.
You must learn to rein your tongue.
One of my relations / relatives is coming for dinner.
We had a small row but quickly made up.
They sat in the front row.