

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. She from the heat.

fainted

fainted

2. Only a sound came over the radio.

feint

faint

3. The dogs made a few at each other and then backed off without fighting

faints

feints

English Vocabulary Exercise

4. countries can survive without trade.

Few

Little

Less

5. Don't give me any more cookies – I still have few

a few

the few

6. A good speaker does not for words.

founder

English Vocabulary Exercise

flounder

7. She the lamp.

lit

lighted

Either could be used here

8. He has one He is terrified of heights.

mania

phobia

9. What do you do with a partner who has a for watching soccer on television?

English Vocabulary Exercise

phobia

mania

10. He is so that he constantly changes his political outlooks.

volcanic

mercurial

11. The guests are friends of the bride.

most

mostly

12. everyone enjoyed the party.

English Vocabulary Exercise

Most

Almost

Answers

1. She fainted from the heat.
2. Only a faint sound came over the radio.
3. The dogs made a few feints at each other and then backed off without fighting.
4. Few countries can survive without trade.
5. Don't give me any more cookies - I still have a few.
6. A good speaker does not flounder for words.
7. She lit / lighted the lamp.
8. He has one phobia. He is terrified of heights.
9. What do you do with a partner who has a mania for watching soccer on television?
10. He is so mercurial that he constantly changes his political outlooks.
11. The guests are mostly friends of the bride.

English Vocabulary Exercise

12. Almost everyone enjoyed the party.