

English Vocabulary Exercise

This exercise tests your range of English vocabulary.

1. Meera was extremely angry but I
..... her by promising to leave her house and never return.

assuaged
persuaded
coerced

2. More research needs to be done in how to ..... conservation needs with growing demand for natural resources.

align reconcile
oblige

3. by her friends, she lost all hope.

Forbidden
Forsaken
Forlorn

English Vocabulary Exercise

4. A study found the site suitable for building the airport.

viability
feasibility
economic

5. His party should be blamed for the political in the country.

stalemate
revival
devaluation
advocacy

6. Work on the project cannot start until the planning authority gives to the development.

compliance
consent
projection

7. We won't be able to maintain our competitive advantage without this deal.

English Vocabulary Exercise

culminating
clinching
canvassing
crossing

8. A series of financial blunders in the collapse of one of the largest banking institutions in the world.

coincided coexisted
culminated

9. Man is; however, he needs mental companionship more than physical companionship.

egoistic
altruistic
gregarious

10. Susie`s decision to marry her best friend`s ex-boyfriend left me I couldn`t figure out why she should want to do it.

exhausted

English Vocabulary Exercise

demolished
nonplussed

11. The journey took longer than we expected because the driver brought us by a route.

ambiguous
circular circumscribed
circuitous

12. Students protested against school regulations that their social activities.

circumvented
circumscribed
circulated

Answers

1. Meera was extremely angry but I assuaged her by promising to leave her house and never return.
2. More research needs to be done in how to reconcile conservation needs with growing demand for natural resources.
3. Forsaken by her friends, she lost all hope.

English Vocabulary Exercise

4. A feasibility study found the site suitable for building the airport.
5. His party should be blamed for the political stalemate in the country.
6. Work on the project cannot start until the planning authority gives consent to the development.
7. We won't be able to maintain our competitive advantage without clinching this deal.
8. A series of financial blunders culminated in the collapse of one of the largest banking institutions in the world.
9. Man is gregarious; however, he needs mental companionship more than physical companionship.
10. Susie's decision to marry her best friend's ex-boyfriend left me nonplussed. I couldn't figure out why she should want to do it.
11. The journey took longer than we expected because the driver brought us by a circuitous route.
12. Students protested against school regulations that circumscribed their social activities.