

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. They told him to ..... his tongue.

bridal

bridle

rein

2. Those who abuse children must receive -----
----- punishment.

corporeal

corporate

corporal

3. Blindness can be .....

English Vocabulary Exercise

congenial

congenital

4. Her beauty ..... the man.

caught

captivated

captured

decapitated

5. The visiting Queen was given a
..... welcome.

ceremonial

ceremonious

celebrated

English Vocabulary Exercise

6. She ..... me on my appearance.

complimented

complemented

contemplated

7. As it is ....., I cannot discuss it with you.

confident

confidential

public

8. This practice does not ..... to the accepted norms of the society.

confirm

English Vocabulary Exercise

conform

approve

9. He substantiated his views with
..... quotations.

apposite

opposite

10. If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an
.....

allusion

illusion

belief

English Vocabulary Exercise

11. The students should give an ..... of the novel in about 500 words.

abstract

extract

content

12. He ..... the bottle to show that it was empty.

inverted

averted

turned

Answers

They told him to bridle his tongue.

English Vocabulary Exercise

Those who abuse children must receive corporal punishment.

Blindness can be congenital.

Her beauty captivated the man.

The visiting Queen was given a ceremonious welcome.

She complimented me on my appearance.

As it is confidential, I cannot discuss it with you.

This practice does not conform to the accepted norms of the society.

He substantiated his views with apposite quotations.

If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an illusion.

The students should give an abstract of the novel in about 500 words.

He inverted the bottle to show that it was empty.