Fill in the blanks.

1. They told him to ........................................ his tongue.

   bridal bridle rein

   corporeal corporate corporal

3. Blindness can be  ......................
4. Her beauty ................................ the man.

caught captivated captured

decapitated

5. The visiting Queen was given a ................................ welcome.

ceremonial

ceremonious celebrated

6. She .................................. me on my appearance.

- complimented
- complemented
- contemplated

7. As it is .........................., I cannot discuss it with you.

- confident
- confidential
- public

8. This practice does not ............................. to the accepted norms of the society.

- confirm conform approve

9. He substantiated his views with ................................ quotations.

apposite opposite

10. If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an ........................

dallusion illusion belief
11. The students should give an …………………………. of the novel in about 500 words.

- abstract
- extract
- content

12. He ………………………….. the bottle to show that it was empty.

- inverted
- averted
- turned

Answers

They told him to bridle his tongue.
Those who abuse children must receive corporal punishment.
Blindness can be congenital.
Her beauty captivated the man.
The visiting Queen was given a ceremonious welcome.
She complimented me on my appearance.
As it is confidential, I cannot discuss it with you.
This practice does not conform to the accepted norms of the society.
He substantiated his views with apposite quotations.
If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an illusion.
The students should give an abstract of the novel in about 500 words.
He inverted the bottle to show that it was empty.