Fill in the blanks.

1. They told him to ------------------------- his tongue.

bridal bridle
rein

2. Those who abuse children must receive -------- ------- punishment.

corporeal
corporate corporal

3. Blindness can be ------------------------- English Vocabulary Exercise

congenial

congenital

4. Her beauty ................................ the man.

captured

captivated

5. The visiting Queen was given a ................................ welcome.

decapitated

ceremonial

ceremonious

celebrated
6. She

- complimented
- complemented
- contemplated

7. As it is

- confident
- confidential
- public

8. This practice does not

- confirm
English Vocabulary Exercise

conform

approve

9. He substantiated his views with ................................ quotations.

apposite

opposite

10. If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an ................................

allusion

illusion

belief
11. The students should give an .......................... of the novel in about 500 words.

abstract
extract
content

12. He ............................... the bottle to show that it was empty.

inverted
averted
turned

Answers
They told him to bridle his tongue.
Those who abuse children must receive corporal punishment.
Blindness can be congenital.
Her beauty captivated the man.
The visiting Queen was given a ceremonious welcome.
She complimented me on my appearance.
As it is confidential, I cannot discuss it with you.
This practice does not conform to the accepted norms of the society.
He substantiated his views with apposite quotations.
If you believe that you can achieve success without hard work, you are under an illusion.
The students should give an abstract of the novel in about 500 words.
He inverted the bottle to show that it was empty.