

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. The teacher was impatient with the students.

unattentive

misattentive

inattentive

2. The dark clouds suggest an storm.

inpending

impending

upending

3. The moderator maintained an manner throughout the furious

English Vocabulary Exercise

debate.

dispassive

impassive

unpassive

4. The government and the teacher's union have reached an empasse

unpasse

impasse

5. Try to remain until you have heard both sides of the story.

impartial

English Vocabulary Exercise

unpartial

dispartial

6. The students are for vacations to begin.

impatient

dispatient

unpatient

7. The caterpillar is the stage of the butterfly.

unmature

immature

inmature

English Vocabulary Exercise

8. What people wear to the party is

.....

unmaterial

immaterial

nonmaterial

9. A back injury kept him for three weeks.

immobile

unmobile

nonmobile

10. He is known for making claims about his talent and success.

unmodest

English Vocabulary Exercise

immodest

nonmodest

12. The assassination was one of history's most deeds.

unnoble

ignoble

disnoble

Answers

The teacher was impatient with the inattentive students.

The dark clouds suggest an impending storm.

The moderator maintained an impassive manner throughout the furious debate.

The government and the teacher's union have reached an impasse.

Try to remain impartial until you have heard both sides of the story.

The students are impatient for vacations to begin.

The caterpillar is the immature stage of the butterfly.

What people wear to the party is immaterial.

A back injury kept him immobile for three weeks.

English Vocabulary Exercise

He is known for making immodest claims about his talent and success.

The entrance is blocked by an immovable rock.

The assassination was one of history's most ignoble deeds.