

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word.

1. His grandfather the business many decades ago.

found

founded

fount

Founded is the past tense of found. To found something is to establish it.

2. The ship during a hurricane.

founded

foundered

founted

To founder is to sink.

3. Don't be when I ask you to do something.

fastidious

frictional

fractious

Fractious means irritable or cross.

4. One more and you are out of the basketball game.

foul

fowl

Foul can refer to something that is against the rules.

5. What is that creature? It is neither fish nor

foul

fowl

A fowl is a chicken or a related bird.

6. One learns a lot during the years of adolescence.

- formal
- former
- formative

Formative means impressionable.

7. She was head of a large shopping complex.

- former
- formerly
- formally

Formerly means at one time.

8. He was dressed too

- formally
- formerly
- formaly

Formally means in a formal manner.

9. He can play classical and pop but his real is jazz improvisation.

- fort
- forte
- fortee

Forte means strong point.

10. Don't ask his opinion unless you are ready for a answer.

- forthright
- forthcoming
- forthrightly

Forthright means frank.

11. Financial assistance from his parents is always

forthcoming

forthright

forecoming

Forthcoming means ready as needed.

12. He has our appointment.

forgot

forgotten

Either could be used here

The past participle of forget can be forgot or forgotten.

PLAY AGAIN !

Answers

1. His grandfather founded the business many decades ago.
2. The ship foundered during a hurricane.
3. Don't be fractious when I ask you to do something.
4. One more foul and you are out of the basketball game.
5. What is that creature? It is neither fish nor fowl.
6. One learns a lot during the formative years of adolescence.
7. She was formerly head of a large shopping complex.
8. He was dressed too formally.
9. He can play classical and pop but his real forte is jazz improvisation.
10. Don't ask his opinion unless you are ready for a forthright answer.
11. Financial assistance from his parents is always forthcoming.
12. He has forgot / forgotten our appointment.