

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word.

1. Perhaps some gifted persons can
..... the future.

- foretell
- foresight
- forestall

2. One needs to stay within the future.

- foresight
- forethought
- Either could be used here

3. In the the author states his intentions in writing the book.

- foreword
- forword
- forward

4. Because of other expenses, I will have to
..... that new suit.

English Vocabulary Exercise

forgo
forge
forage

5. She had a that the trip would end in disaster.

forboding
foreboding
forbidding

6. When I saw that bulldog, I went no farther.

foreboding
forbidding
forbidden

7. Do the cattle have enough

forge
forage
forgo

English Vocabulary Exercise

8. He did his best to a quarrel between the brothers.

foment
ferment fomant

9. The flag from the top of the staff.

flustered
fluttered foistered

10. She her diamond necklace.

flouted
floated flaunted

11. Don't the rules or you will be kicked out of the school.

flaunt
flout

English Vocabulary Exercise

float

12. A of ducks passed overhead.

fleet

flight

gang

Answers

1. Perhaps some gifted persons can foretell the future.
2. One needs foresight / forethought to stay within the budget.
3. In the foreword the author states his intentions in writing the book.
4. Because of other expenses, I will have to forgo that new suit.
5. She had a foreboding that the trip would end in disaster.
6. When I saw that forbidding bulldog, I went no farther.
7. Do the cattle have enough forage?
8. He did his best to foment a quarrel between the brothers.
9. The flag fluttered from the top of the staff.
10. She flaunted her diamond necklace.
11. Don't flout the rules or you will be kicked out of the school.
12. A flight of ducks passed overhead.