

From the given options choose the word which means the same as the keyword.

1. The fox tried desperately to free itself from the trap. Which of the following words means 'free'?

exuberant

extenuate

extricate

Extricate means free, untangle or liberate.

2. The students rejoiced at the last day of school. Which of the following words means rejoiced?

exalted

exulted

extolled

Exulted means rejoiced.

3. The king was honored by his subjects. Which of the following words means honored?

extolled

exulted

exalted

Exalted means honored. Exulted means rejoiced.

4. When the guest speaker failed to arrive, the chairman of the club gave an unprepared talk on environmental issues. Which of the following words means unprepared?

extemporaneous

impromptu

extemporary

All of the above

All of the above words mean unprepared.

5. He was not fined for speeding because his need to get to the hospital quickly was a justifiable circumstance. Which of the following words means justifiable?

extemporaneous

extenuating

extraneous

Extenuating means justifiable or explanatory.

6. The witness's irrelevant remarks were struck from the record. Which of the following words means irrelevant?

exquisite

extraneous

expedient

Extraneous means irrelevant.

7. Using postal codes quickens the delivery of mail. Which of the following words means quickens?

expedites

expends

exonerates

Expedites means quickens

8. During World War II many German refugees settled in the United States. Which of the following words means refugees?

compatriots

expatriots

expatriates

Expatriates means refugees.

9. The older boy's admirable behaviour had a good influence on the younger. Which of the following words means admirable?

exemplary
exhilarating
exacting

Exemplary means admirable, emulative, commendable and similar ideas.

10. The deceased was lauded by his closest friend. Which of the following words means lauded?

eulogized
lampooned
languished

Eulogized means highly praised or lauded.

11. Shun fattening foods if you want to lose weight. Which of the following words can mean shun?

eschew
abdicate
abstain

Eschew means abstain from, steer clear of

12. Some fields of science seem hopelessly cryptic to the layman. Which of the following words means cryptic?

esoteric
aesthetic
exasperate

Esoteric can mean incomprehensible.

PLAY AGAIN !

Answers

1. The fox tried desperately to free itself from the trap. Which of the following words means 'free'? (Extricate)
2. The students rejoiced at the last day of school. Which of the following words means rejoiced? (Exulted)
3. The king was honored by his subjects. Which of the following words means honored? (Exalted)
4. When the guest speaker failed to arrive, the chairman of the club gave an unprepared talk on environmental issues. Which of the following words means unprepared? (Extemporaneous / Impromptu / Extemporary)
5. He was not fined for speeding because his need to get to the hospital quickly was a justifiable circumstance. Which of the following words means justifiable? (Extenuating)
6. The witness's irrelevant remarks were struck from the record. Which of the following words means irrelevant? (Extraneous)
7. Using postal codes quickens the delivery of mail. Which of the following words means quickens? (Expedites)
8. During World War II many German refugees settled in the United States. Which of the following words means refugees? (Expatriates)
9. The older boy's admirable behaviour had a good influence on the younger. Which of the following words means admirable? (Exemplary)
10. The deceased was lauded by his closest friend. Which of the following words means lauded? (Eulogized)
11. Shun fattening foods if you want to lose weight. Which of the following words can mean shun? (Eschew)
12. Some fields of science seem hopelessly cryptic to the layman. Which of the following words means cryptic? (Esoteric)