

English Vocabulary Exercise

Fill in the blanks.

1. Try not to her with such gruesome stories.

- horrify
- horror
- horrible

2. They are very to their guests.

- hostable
- hospitable
- hospitable

3. The forces fought for possession of the mountain pass.

- hospitable
- hostile
- hostility

4. Helping that family was a very thing to do.

English Vocabulary Exercise

human humane

Either could be used here

5. With he thanked everyone for their help.

humanity

humility

humiliation

6. You have to him when he is in one of those moods.

humor

humorous

humore

7. We were asked a question.

hypothesis

hypothetical

hypothetic

English Vocabulary Exercise

8. Not even this bitter experience crushed his
.....

- ideal
- ideology
- idealism

9. can be congenital or caused by some childhood illness.

- Idiocy
- Idiotcy
- Idiosyncrasy

10. Jim is quite knowledgeable but pretends to be an

- ignorant
- ignoramus
- ignominous

11. My departure is

- imminent
- eminent
- emminent

English Vocabulary Exercise

12. Wild animals are immoral

amoral
immortal

Answers

1. Try not to horrify her with such gruesome stories.
2. They are very hospitable to their guests.
3. The hostile forces fought for possession of the mountain pass.
4. Helping that family was a very human / humane thing to do.
5. With humility he thanked everyone for their help.
6. You have to humor him when he is in one of those moods.
7. We were asked a hypothetical question.
8. Not even this bitter experience crushed his idealism.
9. Idiocy can be congenital or caused by some childhood illness.
10. Jim is quite knowledgeable but pretends to be an ignoramus.
11. My departure is imminent.
12. Wild animals are amoral.