

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate word. Choose your answers from the given options.

1. She always to her elder sister.

- defers
- deflects
- defaces

2. May I return this toaster if it is?

- deflective
- defective
- deferential

3. The policeman's badge the bullet.

- defaced
- deduced
- deflected

4. His treatment of the elderly people was affectionate and

- defiance

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

deferential

defunct

5. She has a that makes walking difficult.

defiance

deformity

deflection

6. After all those expenses, we ended the year with a deficit

decorum

deference

7. The company has been since the war.

defunct

deferential

deflective

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

8. He the book by writing on it.

- decorated
- deferred
- defaced

9. The child showed by refusing to eat.

- reluctance
- defiance
- decorum

10. From her conversation, I that she had a large family.

- deferred
- deflected
- deduced

11. I it advisable to buy property now.

- deter
- deem
- denounce

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

12. Jennifer always acts with defunct

deferential
decorum

Answers

1. She always defers to her elder sister.
2. May I return this toaster if it is defective?
3. The policeman's badge deflected the bullet.
4. His treatment of the elderly people was affectionate and deferential.
5. She has a deformity that makes walking difficult.
6. After all those expenses, we ended the year with a deficit.
7. The company has been defunct since the war.
8. He defaced the book by writing on it.
9. The child showed defiance by refusing to eat.
10. From her conversation, I deduced that she had a large family.
11. I deem it advisable to buy property now.

English vocabulary worksheet | Gap fills

12. Jennifer always acts with decorum.