

Formation of questions exercise

Make interrogative sentences.

1. James play cricket?

Does

Do

2. Alice speak French?

Does

Do

3. heat expand bodies?

Does

Do

4. Does Peter models from clay?

makes make

Formation of questions exercise

5. Does she the violin each morning?

practice practices

6. they play well yesterday?

Do
Does
Did

7. he go to office by train?

Does
Do

8. the doctor coming to see her?

Is Has Does

Formation of questions exercise

9. the tablets bitter?

Were Was
Have

10. Will our boys the match?

win won

11. Alice finished her homework?

Has
Have

12. Has he his exams well?

did
do done

Formation of questions exercise

Answers

1. Does James play cricket?
2. Does Alice speak French?
3. Does heat expand bodies?
4. Does Peter make models from clay?
5. Does she practice the violin each morning?
6. Did they play well yesterday?
7. Does he go to office by train?
8. Is the doctor coming to see her?
9. Were the tablets bitter?
10. Will our boys win the match?
11. Has Alice finished her homework?
12. Has he done his exams well?

Grammar notes

If there is no auxiliary verb in the affirmative sentence, we use do, does or did to form questions. Note that do and does are used to form questions in the simple present tense. Did is used to form questions in the past tense.