

Formation of questions: grammar worksheet

In a negative question the word not can have two positions. Study the examples given below.

Wasn't it surprising? (Here not goes after the auxiliary verb. In this case it is usually contracted.)

Was it not surprising? (Here not goes after the subject. In this case it is not contracted.)

Weren't you upset?

Were you not upset?

Isn't she beautiful?

Is she not beautiful?

Both forms have the same meaning. However, forms with the contracted not are more common.

Exercise

For each of the sentences given below, write its corresponding negative form. Give both the full and shortened form of not. An example is given below.

She writes with her left hand.
