Gap Filling Tenses Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate tense form.

1. How long .................. you ..................?

   do, wait are, waiting have, been waiting

2. It .................. at all in March.

   didn't rain
   haven't rained
   Either could be used here

3. Who .................. you Spanish?

   has taught
4. Where .................. all this while?

are you have you been

did you

5. I .................. my keys.

lost

have lost

am losing Gap Filling Tenses Exercise

6. My cat ....................... since yesterday.
   - is missing
   - has been missing
   - was missing

7. Where .................... James ....................?
   - did, go
   - has, gone
   - had, gone

8. Lisa ...................... to work.
   - walk
   - walks
Gap Filling Tenses Exercise

walking

9. It .................... her about 20 minutes to get to work.

takes is taking was taking

10. He .................... any friends.

Please select 2 correct answers doesn't have hasn't hasn't got Gap Filling Tenses Exercise

11. She ......................... in a cafe since she dropped out of school.

- is working
- was working
- has been working

12. I ......................... the book you lent me.

- haven't read
- don't read
- hadn't read

Answers
How long have you been waiting?
It didn’t rain at all in March.
Who taught you Spanish?
Where have you been all this while?
I have lost my keys.
My cat has been missing since yesterday.
Where has James gone?
Lisa walks to work.
It takes her about 20 minutes to get to work.
He doesn’t have / hasn’t got any friends.
She has been working in a cafe since she dropped out of school.
I haven’t read the book you lent me.