1. As he wasn’t schooled, his common sense guided him through life.

As Despite Though

2. If he were more communicative, we would have known his true feelings.

will would would have

3. Although he got a raise, he has been too complacent to work hard.
4. The tenants complained that there _______________________ not enough hot water.

is

was

were

5. The boy remained in concealment _______________________ the bully went away.

until

up to
6. Diplomas were conferred ................................ members of the graduating class.

7. He would be a good pianist if he ................................ more confidence.
8. If a pregnant woman .......................... not take care of herself, she can give her baby congenital defects.

   do
   does has

9. A conscientious worker arrives on time and .......................... no mess behind him.

   leaving
   leaves
   left

10. The world will run out of oil .......................... it practices conservation.

   if Gap Fills Exercise

until

unless

11. Those ………………………….. planned the rebellion were indicted for conspiracy against the king.

who

which

whom

12. Is that container ……………………………. to hold all the books?

enough large

large enough

too large Gap Fills Exercise

Answers

1. Though he wasn’t schooled, his common sense guided him through life.

2. If he were more communicative, we would know his true feelings.

3. Ever since he got a raise, he has been too complacent to work hard.

4. The tenants complained that there was not enough hot water.

5. The boy remained in concealment until the bully went away.

6. Diplomas were conferred on members of the graduating class.

7. He would be a good pianist if he had more confidence.

8. If a pregnant woman does not take care of herself, she can give her baby congenital defects.

9. A conscientious worker arrives on time and leaves no mess behind him.

10. The world will run out of oil unless it practices conservation.

11. Those who planned the rebellion were indicted for conspiracy against the king.

12. Is that container large enough to hold all the books?