

Gap Fills Exercise

State whether the pronouns are used as reflexive or emphatic in the following sentences.

1. He himself said this.

emphatic

reflexive

2. She admired herself in the mirror.

emphatic

reflexive

3. The Prime Minister himself received the visiting dignitaries.

emphatic

reflexive

Gap Fills Exercise

4. When I realized what I had done, I wanted to slap myself.

emphatic

reflexive

5. She did all the work herself.

emphatic

reflexive

6. Mother herself took me to hospital.

emphatic

reflexive

7. The player injured himself while playing

Gap Fills Exercise

football.

emphatic

reflexive

8. I enjoyed myself during the holidays.

emphatic

reflexive

9. They themselves caused all the trouble.

emphatic

reflexive

10. They congratulated themselves on the victory.

Gap Fills Exercise

emphatic

reflexive

11. The officer himself inspected the fields.

emphatic

reflexive

Answers

1. He himself said this. (emphatic)
2. She admired herself in the mirror. (reflexive)
3. The Prime Minister himself received the visiting dignitaries. (emphatic)
4. When I realized what I had done, I wanted to slap myself. (reflexive)
5. She did all the work herself. (emphatic)
6. Mother herself took me to hospital. (emphatic)
7. The player injured himself while playing football. (reflexive)

Gap Fills Exercise

8. I enjoyed myself during the holidays. (reflexive)

9. They themselves caused all the trouble. (emphatic)

10. They congratulated themselves on the victory. (reflexive)

11. The officer himself inspected the fields. (emphatic)