

Gap fills exercise (Vocabulary)

Complete the following sentences using an appropriate word.

1. I am tired of to your demands.

satisfying
pandering
falling meeting

2. In order to be successful, businesses have to to the needs of their customers.

cater
master
please assimilate

3. They tried to reassure me but I was still not able to my fears.

prevent
annul reduce curtail

Gap fills exercise (Vocabulary)

4. I always preferred the of the big city.

obscurity
anonymity
privileges

5. The General the defeat to a series of tactical errors.

blamed pointed ascribed
accredited

6. They cast on his integrity.

slanders
aspersions
remarks
skepticism

7. A mugger him on the dark street.

assailed
ascribed

Gap fills exercise (Vocabulary)

hailed treated

8. Most people to my views on the matter.

accept approve admit assent

9. My constant reassurance could not their fears.

assuage
avoid soothe prevent

10. Our plans have gone

wrecked
awry
crooked
shattered

Gap fills exercise (Vocabulary)

Answers

1. I am tired of pandering to your demands.
2. In order to be successful, businesses have to cater to the needs of their customers.
3. They tried to reassure me but I was still not able to annul my fears.
4. I always preferred the anonymity of the big city.
5. The General ascribed the defeat to a series of tactical errors.
6. They cast aspersions on his integrity.
7. A mugger assailed him on the dark street.
8. Most people assent to my views on the matter.
9. My constant reassurance could not assuage their fears.
10. Our plans have gone awry.